ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH AUSTRALIA (NEW SOUTH WALES) INCORPORATED

FOOD SURVEILLANCE SCHOOL 2010

(EHA Members: CPD Points Allocation: 5 per day)

1 – 3 September 2010

Holroyd Centre, Miller Street, Merrylands.

With the implementation of the food regulation partnership (FRP) between the NSW Food Authority and Local Government, the Name and Shame Register, the trial of both Scores-On-Doors and standardised inspection templates, Councils are currently undergoing the biggest shake up of food surveillance in years. This year's Food Surveillance School will be held over two and a half days and will offer EHOs a unique and exciting opportunity to broaden their professional skills, network with their peers, acquire new skills and knowledge and keep abreast of the latest developments in food surveillance.

We have revamped our annual Food Surveillance School and promise to deliver EHOs the most informative and comprehensive food surveillance learning experience available. Our speakers have been selected on the basis of their industry expertise and knowledge and include some of this State's most experienced EHOs. Topics to be presented include:

- NSWFA Training, FRP & Scores-on Doors Update
• Food Surveillance Training Workshop
• Prosecution Techniques & Mock Trial
• Industry Site Visit
• Food Poisoning Case Studies
• Inspecting Culturally Diverse Food Premises
• Food Safety Auditing
• Food Safety Standards Explained
• Special/Temporary Food Events

The format for this year's Food Surveillance School has been designed to provide EHOs and student/trainee EHOs with the opportunity to acquire a professional suite of food surveillance skills and knowledge that will assist them in the demanding and ever changing field of food safety. It is anticipated that a site tour will be included, along with a casual networking dinner on Wednesday evening.
