

Quick Guide – Membership Classes

Member Classes:

- Member
- Associate Member
- Graduate Member
- Student Member

Sub-classes:

- Temporary Inactive Member
- Part-time Member
- Retired Member

Member Classes by appointment only:

- Fellow
- Honorary Fellow
- Life Fellow

Standard Membership Classes

Member
Eligibility:	A person who has completed an undergraduate or postgraduate degree approved under the EHA Course Accreditation policy. A person who has completed an undergraduate or post graduate qualifications/majors in public and/or environmental health or a related field and who have an interest in, or practice in environmental health. Any person having membership of the EHA or AIEH (Australian Institute of Environmental Health) in the class of Associate Member or Member as at 31 December 1993 and who has maintained their membership subscription.
Voting Rights:	1 vote
Benefits & Entitlements:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Newsletters, Website Access, Journal of Environmental Health • Attendance at all conferences and workshops at member rates • Ability to fill any office bearer positions • Participation at networks, committees, seminar/conference organisation & special interest groups • Access to CPD and CEHT or CEHP programs. • May use the post nominal MEHA • Receive a Certificate of Professional Recognition upon admittance to this class if completed an undergraduate or postgraduate degree approved under the EHA Course Accreditation policy
Conditions	Must provide proof of completed studies with their application for membership. Admission is on condition that the applicant undertakes continuous professional development and agrees to abide by the Constitution, By Laws and policies of the EHA (Vic).
Membership Fee:	$320 (early bird by 31st July $295)

Associate Member
Eligibility:	A person with a qualification other than those qualifications providing eligibility for Member Class. A person who possess a VET qualification at the level of Certificate IV or above in environmental health related areas including food technology, local government regulation, waste water technology or sustainability. A person who was previously admitted as a member under the grandfather clause who has subsequently let their membership lapse and is seeking re-admission. A Cadet Environmental Health Officers with 3 or more years of experience.
Voting Rights:	1 vote
Benefits & Entitlements:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Newsletters, Website Access, Journal of Environmental Health • Attendance at all conferences and workshops at member rates • Ability to fill any office bearer positions • Participation at networks, committees, seminar/conference organisation & special interest groups • May use the post nominal AMEHA • Access to CPD and CEHT or CEHP programs
Conditions	Must provide proof of completed studies with their application for membership. Cadets must provide confirmation of employment as a Cadet, number of years employed and proof of enrolment in a recognised Environmental Health Degree or equivalent. Must have successfully completed all first year subjects. Admission is on condition that the applicant undertakes continuous professional development and agrees to abide by the Constitution, By Laws and policies of the EHA (Vic).
Membership Fee:	$320 (early bird by 31st July $295)

Graduate Member
Eligibility:	Has completed a qualification as defined within the eligibility section of the Associate Member or Member class. Has completed the above qualification within the past 12 months.
Voting Rights:	1 vote
Benefits & Entitlements:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Newsletters, Website Access, Journal of Environmental Health • Attendance at all conferences and workshops at member rates • Ability to fill any office bearer positions • Participation at networks, committees, seminar/conference organisation & special interest groups May use the post nominal MEHA • Access to CPD and CEHT or CEHP programs • Reduced membership fee (50%)
Conditions	Access to this membership class is for a maximum of 2 consecutive years before advancement to Associate Member or Member. Admission is on condition that the applicant undertakes continuous professional development and agrees to abide by the Constitution, By Laws and policies of the EHA (Vic).
Notes:	The intention of this class to provide a less expensive form of membership for recent graduates who may be struggling financially.
Membership Fee:	$180

Student Member
Eligibility:	Must be undertaking an undergraduate or postgraduate degree accredited under the EHA National Accreditation Policy. A Cadet Environmental Health Officers with 3 or more years of experience is also eligible for Associate Membership.
Voting Rights:	NIL
Benefits & Entitlements:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Newsletters, Website Access, Journal of Environmental Health • Attendance at all conferences and workshops at member rates • Ability to fill student office bearer positions • Participation at networks, committees, seminar/conference organisation & special interest groups
Conditions	Must not be undertaking full time employment (except Cadet Environmental Health Officers). May only access student member class once. Proof of student enrolment must be provided on application to this membership class.
Membership Fee:	No fee

Sub-classes

Temporary Inactive Member
Eligibility:	Has been a financial member for a minimum of 2 years within the class of an Associate Member, Member, Fellow, or Honorary Fellow.
Voting Rights:	1 vote
Benefits & Entitlements:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Newsletters, Website Access, Journal of Environmental Health • Participation at networks and special interest groups.
Conditions	Minimum leave of absence period is 6 months. Maximum leave of absence period is 12 months. Request for access to the Temporary Inactive Member must be in writing. A maximum of 2 consecutive years as a Temporary Inactive Member may be approved.
Membership Fee:	No fee. Are added to the temporary Inactive List

Part – Time Member
Eligibility:	Has been a financial member for a minimum of 2 years within the class of an Associate Member, Member, Fellow, Life Fellow or Honorary Fellow.
Voting Rights:	1 vote
Benefits & Entitlements:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Newsletters, Website Access, Journal of Environmental Health • Attendance at all conferences and workshops at member rates • Ability to fill any office bearer positions • Participation at networks, committees, seminar/conference organisation & special interest groups • May use the post nominal associates with their normal class of membership

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Access to CPD and CEHT or CEHP programs • Reduced membership fee (60%)
Conditions	Must provide documentation from employer on part-time status and include rate of effective full time, i.e.0.8 EFT (4 days per week).
Membership Fee:	$192

Retired Member
Eligibility:	Has been a financial member for a minimum of 10 years within the class of an Associate Member, Member, Fellow, Life Fellow or Honorary Fellow.
Voting Rights:	1 vote
Benefits & Entitlements:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Newsletters, Website Access, Journal of Environmental Health • Participation at networks and special interest groups
Conditions	Must not be participating in full time employment
Membership Fee:	$55

Membership Classes by appointment only

Fellow
Membership Fee:	$320 (early bird by 31st July $295)

Honorary Fellow
Membership Fee:	No fee

Life Fellow
Membership Fee:	No fee