Environmental Health & Immunisation

Environmental Health Officer

- Permanent position + Attractive salary + motor vehicle
- Full time or Part-time role
- Diverse and interesting work
- Autonomy within a supportive network and culture
- Based in Mitchell Shire Council

About Us

Kernow has been at the forefront of the environmental health industry in Victoria for more than 23 years. With more than 40 Environmental Health Officers across metro and rural councils plus a large immunisation team and support personnel, our staff have significant expertise and are respected leaders in the field. We have long standing relationships with a number of large and small councils in metro and rural Victoria and provide short term contracting solutions to various other councils within Victoria.

The Role

We are looking for an Environmental Health Officer to join the team at Mitchell. The role can be performed as a full time or part-time (min 0.6 FTE) position. The role would suit an experienced and /or enthusiastic Environmental Health Officer interested in working in a picturesque Shire neighbouring Melbourne, experiencing significant growth and development.

In this role, your core responsibilities will be:

- Working closely with Kernow's Mitchell team and the Team Leader, Mitchell to deliver the Environmental Health Service;
- Undertaking food and health premises compliance inspections;
- Waste water assessments and on-site inspections;
- Investigating food safety and public health complaints;
- Providing tobacco educational visits and compliance inspections;
- Undertaking food sampling visits; and
- Investigating infectious disease notifications.

About You

To be successful in this role, you will have recent experience as an Environmental Health Officer operating in a local government environment. Supplementing this experience, you will possess an Environmental Health qualification, Bachelor of Health Science or other relevant tertiary qualification.

You will also have excellent communication skills, a demonstrated ability to operate both autonomously and collaboratively within a team environment and manage stakeholders. You will be motivated to develop professionally and embrace new technology. You will also hold a valid Australian drivers licence.

What we will offer

Kernow will negotiate a generous salary package inclusive of a motor vehicle with the successful candidate.

In addition, we offer a diversity of work and opportunities beyond the average 'day to day' work of an EHO. You will also be joining a culture that is committed to investing in staff, offering genuine development opportunities and a team that values collaboration and learning and development.

How to apply

To apply for the role, please email your CV and an expression of interest to Jackie Foley jackie.foley@kernow.net.au by Friday 22 October 2021.
